

Oussama: Hey Mustapha, did you watch Morocco's match in last World Cup?

Mustapha: Yeah, it was amazing! I still can't believe how well they played.

Oussama: Beating Spain in the penalty shootout was unbelievable. I was so nervous!

Mustapha: Same! But Bono was incredible, saving two penalties. He's a hero.

Oussama: The defense was solid too. Hakimi and aguered were outstanding.

Mustapha: Definitely. And Ziyech and En-Nesyri were key for the attack.

Oussama: It felt like they were playing with so much heart. It was historic for Moroccan football.

Mustapha: Exactly, making the semifinals was huge for Morocco and African football.

Oussama: The celebrations in the streets were incredible!

Mustapha: Yeah, it brought everyone together. A moment we'll never forget.

Oussama: I hope they keep up the good work. Morocco has so much potential.

Mustapha: For sure, with all the young talent coming up, they can go even further.

Oussama: I can't wait for the next World Cup. Morocco has proven they can compete with the best.

Mustapha: Absolutely! They've made us all proud.
